10-30am to noon

Shooting Star Children's Hospices cares for babies, children and young people with life-limiting conditions, and their families, across SW London, NW London and Surrey. They support families from diagnosis to end of life and throughout bereavement with a range of nursing, practical, emotional, and medical care. It costs £10 million a year to run Shooting Star Children's Hospices, so they rely on the generosity of supporters to keep the services going.
